AN EVENING CONFERENCE WITH THE FRANCO-BRITISH LAWYERS SOCIETY

Wednesday 21st May 2008, at 17.45

'Liability in Commercial Contracts in French and English Law'

Hosted by the College of Law at
14 Store Street, London, WC1E 7DE, Room S101

How liability is established in commercial contracts? Can the parties exclude their liability for all damages and injuries they might cause? How is the extent of damages assessed? Can third parties have rights under a contract in which they are not involved?

The conference will shed light on the different approaches the two jurisdictions can have on these issues, both from an academic and practical point of view.

Chairman : Robert Stevenson
Franco British Lawyers Society, director for Programme

Speakers:

PROFESSOR LAURENT AYNES
Senior lecturer at the Sorbonne University
Paris I, author of numerous textbooks on contract, guarantees and tort

PETER BURBIDGE
Senior lecturer at the University of Westminster

CELINE BENSOUSSAN
Associate at CMS Cameron McKenna

The Seminar will start at 18.00, and will be followed by a drinks reception at approximately 19.45. The event is accredited for CPD points with the Solicitors Regulation Authority and Ilex for 1.5 hours.

Both members and non-members of the Franco-British Lawyers Society are welcome, the event is free, but non-member attendees are encouraged to join the Society.
