SIXTH ANNUAL FRANCO-BRITISH LEGAL CAREERS FORUM

Monday 27 April 2009, 6.00 – 8.00pm at the University of Westminster,
4-12 Little Titchfield Street, London W1, Room 307 (third floor)

All law students, trainees and recently qualified lawyers are invited to attend the Forum, which is organised in conjunction with the University of Westminster.

Members of the Panel will speak and answer questions on different aspects of legal careers at the interface between British and French Law, both in the UK and France. They will describe their experience of practice in the two jurisdictions, in private practice or as an in-house lawyer. All talks will be in English but questions in French and English are equally welcome. Questions on recognition of qualifications and cross-border practice regulation can also be dealt with.

- Chairman: Peter Burbidge Barrister (non-practising), Senior Lecturer in business and commercial law at the University of Westminster, London
- Panel: Marie-Christine Peyroux Avocate Associée, Lefèvre Pelletier & Associés
- Michael Butcher Barrister, past-President Franco-British Lawyers Society, General Counsel and Company Secretary, Veolia Environnement UK
- Tatiana Desjobert Solicitor, ancien avocat au Barreau de Paris
Group Head of Legal, Habitat
- Gay Bailey Senior Policy Manager in the Ministry of Justice
(how administrators work with lawyers)
- Géraldine Fabre Solicitor, Pritchard Englefield

Registration from 5.45pm for a prompt start at 6pm

No charge: those attending are encouraged to become members of the Franco-British Lawyers Society (£10 annual subscription for students and trainees).
